

Christmas Fundraising Ideas

Make this Christmas season even more magical by fundraising to support children living with half a working heart. Whether you're celebrating at school, work, or home, here are some jolly ideas to get everyone in the festive spirit!

Santa Dash or Elf Run

Get active with a festive fun run or walk! Dress up as Santa, elves, or reindeer and ask for sponsorship.

Festive Bake Sale

Bake up some Christmas cheer with mince pies and reindeer cupcakes. Sell your treats at school, work, or a community event.

Festive Crafts

Host a Christmas market selling handmade gifts, cards, and decorations, perfect for those with a creative flair!

Carol Singing or Christmas Concert

Spread joy in your local community with a festive sing-along or concert. Collect donations or sell tickets to raise funds.

Christmas Jumper Day

Pick a day for everyone to wear their silliest or sparkliest Christmas jumper and donate £2 to take part. Perfect to get into the festive spirit!

Christmas Games Night

Organise a fun evening of festive games, Christmas bingo, quiz night, or "Name That Carol." Charge an entry fee and offer small prizes.

Mulled Wine & Mince Pie Morning

Invite friends, neighbours, or colleagues for a cosy coffee (or mulled wine!) morning with festive treats for a donation.

Festive Film Night

Invite friends or family over for a Christmas movie marathon. Sell tickets or snacks and enjoy classics like Elf, The Grinch, or Home Alone.

Gift Wrapping Station

Offer to wrap Christmas gifts for friends, family, or colleagues in exchange for a donation. Great fun with festive music and mince pies!

Tree of Wishes

Set up a Christmas tree where supporters can hang a star or heart with a message and a small donation, perfect for schools or workplaces instead of sending Christmas cards.

Help as You Shop

Turn your Christmas shopping into free donations! Use Easyfundraising to support Little Hearts Matter every time you shop online it won't cost you a penny.

Every penny you raise helps Little Hearts Matter support children, teenagers, and families living with half a working heart this Christmas.
