

Fun School Fundraising Ideas!

Help Your School Make a Big Difference

Looking for an easy and fun way to support Little Hearts Matter this school term? Whether you're a parent, teacher, PTA member or pupil, here are some creative fundraising ideas for school communities to enjoy together:

Bake Sale

Sell cakes at break, lunchtime or after school.

♥ Ask families to donate baked goods and raise money through sales.

Sponsored Fun Run

Children complete fun challenges while collecting sponsorship.

♥ Great for sports day or end-of-term events.

Crazy Hair or Hat Day

Pupils donate £1 to come to school with colourful hairstyles or funny hats.

♥ Simple to organise and always popular with younger pupils.

Art or Poster Competition

Charge a small entry fee and display the artwork around school

♥ Ask local businesses to sponsor prizes.

Teacher Dare Day

Pupils donate £1 to vote for a harmless challenge for school staff to complete.

♥ A fun way to get the whole school involved.

Readathon Challenge

Children collect sponsorship based on the number of books, pages or minutes they read.

♥ A brilliant way to encourage reading

Teddy Bears Picnic

Families bring teddies and donate to attend a picnic or themed play session.

♥ Ideal for nurseries and reception classes

Penalty Shootout Competition

Charge a small entry fee to take part in a football challenge.

♥ Offer a small prize for the winner

School Talent Show

Sell tickets for pupils, parents and carers to attend an after-school performance.

♥ Celebrate talent while raising funds.

Sponge the Teacher

Charge pupils for throws at willing teachers or school staff!

♥ Perfect for summer fairs and guaranteed to attract a crowd.

Every pound raised helps children, teenagers and families living with half a working heart. Thank you for being part of our Little Hearts Matter community!

To share your school fundraising photos and achievements, or ask for fundraising support, email fundraising@lhm.org.uk - we'd love to hear your plans!